League of Women Voters of Florida to Honor Young Elected Officials at Old Capitol Gala Tonight

Tallahassee, FL -- The League of Women Voters of Florida will be honoring up-and-coming young elected officials from throughout the state of Florida at tonight's LWVF Old Capitol Gala in Tallahassee. The event will take place from 6-8 PM, and will feature keynote speaker Tallahassee City Commissioner Andrew Gillum as well as 14 honorees, including:

Broward County School Board Member Robin Bartleman
Jackson County Commissioner Jeremy Branch
Wakulla County Commissioner Alan Brock
West Park Vice-Mayor Felicia Brunson
Leon County Commissioner Kristin Dozier
Longwood Mayor Joe Durso
Midway City Councilman Jerrod Holton
Deland City Commissioner Vonzelle Johnson
Gainesville City Commissioner Jeanna Mastrodicasa
Pensacola City Councilwoman Megan Pratt
Miami-Dade County School Board Member Raquel Regalado
Daytona Beach City Commissioner Kelly White
Jacksonville City Councilman Clay Yarborough

"The League of Women Voters of Florida is pleased to introduce these dedicated young electeds to a statewide audience," said League president Deirdre Macnab. "Not only are these young people serving their communities in a positive way, they are combating stereotypes about youth apathy and setting an example to others in their generation."

The event will take place in the Senate Chambers of Florida's Historic Capitol. Wine and appetizers will be served. Tickets are available for purchase at the door for $75. As part of a special promotion, members of the public 40 and under may attend the event for the price of their age. Press passes are available. For more information about the event, or to RSVP, please call: (850) 228-3646.
