LWVF Launches 2016 Be Ready to Vote

To make sure that Florida voters have easy, free access to the information they need for the March 15th Presidential Florida primary and other elections in 2016, the League of Women Voters of Florida is launching its updated Be Ready To Vote/Vamos A Votar web and mobile platforms.

Be Ready To Vote is a comprehensive voting resource, with all the key registration dates, voter registration forms, information on the three ways Floridians have to vote, links to all Supervisor of Elections websites where voters can easily determine their registration status, information on how closed primaries impact non-affiliated voters, and more.

The site will also feature non-partisan Election Guides that will include information on state Constitutional Amendments and the 2016 Florida Congressional and Florida Senate/House Candidate Survey Responses as the Primary and General election races and Amendments are determined.

Mobile friendly, and in Spanish and in English, BeReadytoVote.org provides one-stop access to any questions voters have for being an informed voter in Florida.

VOTER REGISTRATION DEADLINES:

(Florida Law requires that you be registered 29 days before an election)

FLORIDA PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARY: March 15, 2016

DEADLINE TO REGISTER: February 16, 2016

FLORIDA PRIMARY: August 30, 2016

DEADLINE TO REGISTER: August 1, 2016

GENERAL ELECTION: November 8, 2016

DEADLINE TO REGISTER: October 11, 2016

Why is the March 15 Presidential Primary a closed primary?

What does that mean for me if I am not registered with a party?

If I am registered with no party affiliation, do I have time to re-register with a party?

Answers to those questions and more can be found HERE, as well as on the Be Ready To Vote or Vamos A Voter websites
